

Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants Bursaries

Regulations

Purpose and Background

With the generous donation from Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the Donor) to Chu Hai College of Higher Education (the College), the “Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants Bursaries” (the Bursaries) were established and effective since 2012/13 under the following regulations.

1. The Bursaries shall be known as the “Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants Bursaries” (香港會計師公會助學金).
2. The Bursaries will be awarded to four students in each academic year. The value of each bursary will be HK$5,000 per annum.

Eligibility and Criteria

1. The Bursaries shall be awarded to four full-time undergraduate students of the Bachelor of Commerce (Hons) in Accounting and Banking Programme which is accredited by the Institute per annum.
2. The bursary recipients should:
 - (i) suffer from genuine financial hardship;
 - (ii) be in good character;
 - (iii) achieve CGPA of 50% out of 4.0 (equivalent to CGPA of 2.0) or above up to the last semester.
3. If there are candidates of comparable academic merits, their involvements in extra-curricular activities and social services shall also be taken into consideration.

Procedures

1. Applications should be submitted to Student Affairs Office (SAO) and applicants may be invited to attend an interview conducted by the Scholarship Committee and SAO if deemed necessary. The shortlisted candidates would be forward to the Donor for endorsement.
2. These regulations may be revised subject to mutual agreement between the Donor and the College.
